NOTES AND DEFINITIONS

1. Leads are counted by the date they were created. A lead that enquired through several channels is counted once per channel in the source table.
2. Win rate is deals won divided by deals won plus deals lost. Open opportunities are excluded.
3. Viewings are counted by their scheduled date within the reporting period.
4. Inventory and portal tables show the position at the time of generation and are not limited to the reporting period.

Confidential. Prepared for internal use.

DOWNLOADABLE GUIDES

Guide pages were viewed 792 times, producing 48 requests (6.1% of views). 37 of those were downloaded. The strongest guide was "The First-Time Buyer's Guide" with 15 requests. 30 of 35 new leads in the period first arrived through a guide.
